HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Point Loma High runs smack into Hoover Friday night in Balboa stadium, and if football history repeats itself, the local boys will really tear up the turf.

Hoover had a powerful team last year, built around big John Adams, fullback, but the lighter Lomans fought fiercely and missed a 13-13 tie by an unlucky fluke in the last two minutes of play.

Point Loma's enrollment is about half that of Hoover. As of today, they are tied for second place in the City League and Friday's winner will take undisputed possession of the runner-up spot behind San Diego High.

Well, the lunatic fringe at State College hanged Coach Bill Schutte in effigy after the Aztecs were defeated at Las Cruces, N. M., for the sixth time this season.

It was a cinch they'd follow the stupid trend at colleges with losing teams, including Oregon, Cal, Washington State and Arizona.

"Fire the coach" is usually the cry among students and alumni when a college is losing—and the attitude reflects a basic ignorance of football.

Any college coach with reasonable intelligence can put out a good team if he has an adequate supply of high school stars and junior college transfers. Cal isn't getting them, and neither is State.

The Ivy League teams—Harvard, Yale, Princeton, etc.—decided long ago that they were through with high-pressure football. It's a sensible attitude. Eventually, I think, all colleges will have to go back to playing football for fun, leaving the Roman (L.A.) Coliseum spectacles to the professional teams.

That game at Pullman, Wash., Saturday between San Jose State and Washington State must have been a lulu.

The temperature was five degrees above zero. The band's woodwinds had stayed home; the brass froze up before the half. A total of one grandstand ticket was sold at the gate.

My brother attended Washington State briefly—he transferred to Arizona to thaw out.

Comes now a Turkey Shoot in Balboa Park Sunday.

It's a bow-and-arrow affair and my first impression was that the boys and girls would shoot turkeys. Further study of the announcement, however, indicates they will loose their shafts at targets, and the "24 frozen dressed turkeys' 'are only prizes.

Yeah, it's probably just as well.

Dr. Cobb Elected To Key Committee

Savings & Loan Association Planned Here

Two applications have been made to the State for a permit to establish a Savings & Loan Association in the Peninsula area, it was reported this week.

The Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce expressed its approval Monday, with its directors voting to encourage establishment of such a service here.

The two groups involved are the Cabrillo Savings & Loan Association and the Point Loma Savings & Loan Association, it was said.

A hearing on the applications is expected to be held next month by the California Savings & Loan Commission. Policy of the commission is to grant a permit to only one association in an area, it was reported.

Christmas Club Checks Total $116,000 Here

Marking the near approach of the Christmas shopping season, distribution of Bank of America Christmas Club checks totaling $116,000 to 1000 residents of Ocean Beach, was announced today by Rollin Reed, manager of the local branch.

Reed said that Bank of America will distribute $52,500,000 throughout the state to 435,000 club members who have followed the popular Christmas savings plan during the past year. This is an increase of $4,500,000 over the amount distributed to 400,000 Californians in 1954.

Christmas checks receive a warm welcome from club members, Reed said, and are used to help fill the children's Yuletide stockings as well as providing funds for the payment of taxes, insurance premiums and other special purposes. He added that Christmas Club accounts for 1956 or now being opened at the branch.

Extra Care Urged In Holiday Traffic

Be able to give thanks on Thanksgiving weekend by driving carefully and being courteous on the highway.

With four days of vacation coming up for most people next week and with national emphasis on Safe Driving Day, the Traffic Safety Council is urging motorists and pedestrians to be doubly careful.

"Everyone in San Diego County who can possibly get away for the four-day holiday weekend will be on the road," the Council said. "We'll witness some of the greatest traffic jams of the year, from next Wednesday night through Sunday.

"In order to make it a happy holiday, do all the things you must do to drive to survive. And remember the other fellow may not be as courteous, so why don't you be your brother's keeper for that period and save not only your life, but his too?"

THE Community Cause!

Residential contributions to the United Success Drive on the Peninsula are $3,300 behind what they were in 1954.

Mrs. Harley C. Greaves, chairman of the campaign here, said yesterday that 1,128 persons on the Point who gave to the drive last year have not yet contributed to the current campaign.

"Although these people are tardy with their contributions, I am sure they will make them," Mrs. Greaves said, "and we are hopeful that our campaign will bring in as much money from this area as the drive did last year.

I think everyone realizes that the contributions coming in now will make the difference between continuing Red Feather services at their present inadequate level or catching up with the growth and needs of this whole community."

Contributions should be mailed to the Community Chest, P. O. Box 2671, San Diego 12, Mrs. Greaves said.

Play With Two Endings Scheduled At California Western University

One of the unusual features of "Night of January 16th," to be presented by the California Western University and Community Players November 30 and December 1, 2, and 3 at the Little Theatre, is that there are two endings to the play. And not even the cast in the play knows which ending will be used until just before the final curtain.

The scene of the play is laid in a court-room during the trial of Karen Andre for the alleged murder of her employer, Bjorn Faulkner. A jury for this cast is chosen from the audience, and sits on the stage. At the conclusion of the trial they render a verdict of either "Guilty," or "Not Guilty." And according to whichever verdict is rendered the play closes on a dramatic note.

A cast of 20 persons, residents of the Point Loma area as well as students and faculty from California Western University, hos been selected by Director Carl Glick to interpret this mystery melodrama. In charge of scenery is Jack Love, assisted by Philip Hartstine, Mrs. Helen Scantlin, Margaret Ross, James Sundell, and Sue Ann Wilson.

The program committee is headed by Mrs. Oren Weller. June Hardisty is in charge of make-up. The lighting is under the direction of John Johnson.

According to Jim Peterson, house manager for this production, tickets may be obtained at the Administration Building on the campus of the University, or by mail order, attention of Carl Glick. Since the Little Theatre at Salomon Hall seats only 63, Peterson urges that reservations be made now. Tickets are $1.

Pt. Loma Meets Hoover In 'Big Game' Friday

In what shapes up as the 1955 "Big Game" for Point Loma High School, the fighting Lomans will take on tough Hoover High tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Balboa stadium. To the winner goes second place in the City Prep League.

Starting the season with a fairly green squad including only seven lettermen, Head Coach Bennie Edens and Line Coach Hil Crosthwaite have worked hard with the boys and produced a team that is a credit to the local school. Quarterback Bill Harvey's pitching and end Fred Jones' catching have contributed materially to the cause.

Point Loma and Hoover are tied for second place, each having won four and lost one. San Diego High beat them both.

The Lomans displayed top form in defeating Kearny, 19-0, in the stadium last Thursday night. The local line put up a stout defense and the blocking also was good.

Outstanding were such linemen as Doug Stephenson, Nick Verdusco and Fred Azevedo.

Halfback Fernando Quaresma scored two touchdowns for Point Loma, with the other six-pointer being registered by Frank Sacco.

Meanwhile, Hoover defeated Lincoln, 34-20, to set the stage for tomorrow's contest.

Fishermen Hook Yellows Plus Bonito, Red Cod

Two superb fishing days, sandwiched in between several stormy ones, touched off another wave of excitement among yellowtail fishermen at the Coronado Islands this week and the long expected winter run appeared to be in the making.

The big blow-off took place last Thursday when both the Rock Pile and North Coronado Islands produced fine catches. Then came bad weather and it was not until Sunday that conditions returned to anything like normal and catches began to soar again.

Thursday's big catch was all the more remarkable because fog prevailed and passenger loads were exceptionally light. Eight anglers at the Rock Pile bagged 74 yellows, including five full limits. At the same time, an equally small party scored well at North Island and many of these fish were large, the largest being a 30 pounder bagged by H. R. Muntzer, San Gabriel.

In addition to good catches of yellows, anglers also loaded the sacks with eight and 10-pound bonito and bottom fishermen seldom failed to take their legal quotas of red cod.

Among Ocean Beach rod and reelers who rang the bell with good catches of yellows were: Virgil Hudson, Carl Simpkins, J. E. McDougal and W. E. Mead.

Women's Auxiliary Of Hospital To Sponsor Silver Tea At CWU

The Women's Auxiliary of the Donald N. Sharp Memorial Community Hospital plans to increase their service to the patients in the hospital 100 percent by the purchase of a station wagon.

Money for this is to be raised by the Auxiliary through sponsoring a Silver Tea on Sunday, November 20, 3 to 5 p.m. in Lomaland Hall on the campus of the California Western University, according to Mrs. Harry S. Morris, president.

"Transportation of the relatives and friends of seriously ill patients at certain times is a service of great importance to the community which can be done by the Auxiliary", said Frank R. McDougall, superintendent of the hospital at the last meeting of the Auxiliary Board. "A station wagon would strengthen our services in time of disaster in rounding up key employees and technical help," he said.

Mrs. M. F. Clonninger has been named chairman of this important event. Her commitee includes Mrs. William Harkliss, Jr., Mrs. Herman H. Roloff, Mrs. Otto Hepner, Mrs. O. B. Tobiason and Mrs. James Wilson. Music will be furnished by Miss Helen Gudmundson and Mrs. Gene Baker.

Wives of the Board of Directors of the San Diego Hospital Association have been asked to pour at the Tea. The public is cordially invited to attend. Contributions may be sent to the hospital.

25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Schroeder were toasted with pink champagne in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary at a reception given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carlyle Thompson, 3035 Lawrence St.

The Schroeders, who live at 405 Rosecrans, were married in 1930 in Longmont, Colorado. They visited San Diego in 1949 and returned in '51 to make it their home. They have two sons, Ted, Jr., a student at State College, and Jack, a senior at Point Loma High School.

The Thompson home was decorated to carry out the silver anniversary theme with the focal point at the fireplace. The wall above the mantle was banked with white satin, bordered with trailing green vines from the center of which hung a cluster of silver bells.

The words "Lois and Ted 25" were spelled out in silver and at the base was the couple's wedding license, framed in silver. On the grand piano stood a silver tree, hung with silver dollars. (The guests kept asking if they might have slips to start such a tree of their own.)

O. B. Woman's Club Enjoys Talk By Mrs. Lazo, From Philippines

By MARIAN KRETTLER

"Every night my little girl prays that Mamma will soon be a citizen of this great country."

So spoke pretty Mrs Josephine Lazo at Thursday's meeting of the Ocean Beach Woman's Club. After the horrors and privations suffered under the invasion of her native Philippines during the war, Mrs. Lazo thinks everything in this nation just perfect. She wore her colorful native costume, and her dark eyes sparkled with enthusiasm as she told how exuberant her people were when the armed forces came to their liberation.

Mrs. Pandora Donovan, of adult education and especially concerned with the American classes for the foreign born, introduced Mrs. Lazo. It was Pandora of legend who released hope into the world, and Mrs. Donovan was well named, since she is concerned primarily, with bringing hope and education to those coming to us from other lands. She was pretty too, in her slim Chinese dress.

Those who wish to accompany Woman's Club members on a trip to the Lagunas on Saturday the 19th, may join the group at the Manor hotel, when the journey will be conducted under the Forestry Department. For the hour when the club pauses at the Manor, phone Mrs. Stothard, AC-2-8129. Lunch will be served in the mountain area.

Don't forget the coming bazaar of November 30. A fine time for selecting Christmas gifts and enjoying a snack of home preparation.

November 23, Arts and Crafts comes to the club at ten in the morning.

Methodist Church

Children of the Junior Department of the Point Loma Methodist Church take a leading role in the church-wide observance of Thanksgiving. They will form a Pilgrim Processional at the Thanksgiving Eve Worship Service from 7 to 8 p.m., November 23.

On Saturday, November 19, the children will also construct a typical Jewish festival Succoth booth in the church courtyard. Mrs. Rose Thornberry, chairman of the Thanksgiving committee, will be in charge, assisted by Mrs. Yvonne Guyer, superintendent of the Junior Department, and these department teachers: Mrs. Marie Cox, Mrs. Pearl Austin, Mrs. Betty Clemenshaw, George Neal, Mrs. Mabel Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Truckenmiller.

The construction of the booth, combined with a party, climaxes their recent study of the Jewish festival of Succoth.

VERY VERY PERSONAL
DEAR JOE:
Glad to get your letter of last week and that all is well with you—and also that the Real Estate Market on the Point and in Ocean Beach is holding up so well, because I have decided to sell my home there, now that renters have moved out.—So will you call
RICHARD HILMEN
Realtor at 4118 Voltaire St., AC-2-1123
and ask him to list the property. I understand that in listing it with HILMEN
as a member of the
MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE
there in the area—that 26 offices will go working on the sale of the property too, and so I guess there is no better way of getting real action, and I want to sell it fast. And listen Joe, you just have to make the
to
AC-2-1123 and HILMEN
will take care of everything and that way it won't be any trouble to you at all. So call him right now Joe,
AC-2-1123,
then you can forget about it because HILMEN
will sell it fast I know.
As ever,
Pete.

WATCH
For the next thrilling episode in the Dear Joe letters next week.

NOTE
Listings not necessarily restricted to out of town owners—so—if you would like the same efficient, experienced
SERVICE
as Pete is bound to get, in the SALE OF YOUR PROPERTY
why dont you call
RICHARD HILMEN
Realtor
AC-2-1123
at 4118 VOLTAIRE ST.
and you can make definite plans to move.
